2. THE CONTRACT

3.4 The fee payable to the Company by the Client for an introduction resulting in an Engagement is calculated in accordance with the accompanying Fee Structure on the Remuneration applicable during the first 12 months of the Engagement. VAT will be charged on the fee if applicable.

2.2 No variation or alteration to these Terms shall be valid unless approved by the Employment Business in writing.

2.3 Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Employment Business, these Terms prevail over any terms of business or purchase conditions proffered by the Client.

3. CHARGES

3.1 The Client agrees to pay the hourly charges of the Employment Business as notified at the commencement of the Assignment and may be varied from time to time during the Assignment. The charges are calculated according to the numbers worked by the Temporary Worker (to the nearest quarter hour). The charges are comprised mainly of the Temporary Worker's remuneration but also include the Employment Business' commission, employer's national insurance contributions, holiday pay top up, and any travel, hotel or other expenses as may have been agreed with the Client or, if there is no such agreement, such expenses as are reasonable. VAT is payable on the entirety of these charges.

3.2 The charges are invoiced to the Client on a weekly basis and are payable within 14 days. The Company reserves the right to charge interest on any overdue amounts at the rate of 4% per annum above the base rate from time to time of National Westminster Bank from the due date until the date of payment.

4. TIMESHEETS

4.1 At the end of each week of an Assignment (or at the end of the Assignment where it is for a period of one week or less or is completed before the end of a week) the Client shall sign the Employment Business' time sheet verifying the number of hours worked by the Temporary Worker during that week.

4.2 Signature of the time sheet by the Client indicates satisfaction with the services provided by the Temporary Worker and confirmation of the number of hours worked. Failure to sign the time sheet does not absolve the Client's obligation to pay the charges in respect of the hours worked.

5. REMUNERATION

5.1 The Employment Business assumes responsibility for payment of the Temporary Worker's remuneration and where appropriate, for the deduction and payment of National Insurance Contributions and PAYE Income Tax applicable to the Temporary Worker.

6. INTRODUCTION FEES

6.1 The engagement or use by a Client of a Temporary Worker or former Temporary Worker introduced by the Employment Business whether for a definite or indefinite period, or the introduction of such Temporary Worker to other employers with a resulting engagement (or, where applicable, if the Temporary Worker has become incorporated under a limited company, the engagement, use or introduction of that limited company) renders the Client subject to the payment of an introduction fee calculated at a percentage of the annual commencing gross taxable remuneration and taxable emoluments payable by the Client to the worker concerned, provided that the engagement takes place within a period of six months from the termination of any temporary assignment, or within six months of the introduction of the Temporary Worker, whichever is later. Where the amount of the annual commencing remuneration is not readily ascertainable, the introduction fee will be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$A \times B \times C$, when A = the profit margin on the employment business's hourly rate, B = Multiply of 600, C = the hourly rate at which the Temporary Worker was last supplied to the Client by the Employment Business. No refund of the introduction fee will be made by the Employment Business to the Client in the event of the subsequent termination of such engagement. VAT is payable in addition to any fee due.

6.2 CPD Recruitment operates a free trial policy. This entitles the Client to employ a temporary worker for a maximum of three hours on a trial basis, if after this time the Client is satisfied with the standard of work achieved, he/she shall be invoiced for this three hour period and any additional hours thereafter. If however the Client is dissatisfied with the standard of work after the trial period, the assignment will be terminated at this point with no charge to the Client. CPD Recruitment maintains the right to withdraw this offer from certain Clients.

7. LIABILITY

7.1 Whilst every effort is made by the Employment Business to give satisfaction to the Client by ensuring reasonable standards of skills, integrity and reliability from Temporary Workers and further to provide them in accordance with the Client's booking details, the Employment Business is not liable for any loss, expense, damage or delay arising from any failure to provide any Temporary Worker for all or part of the period of booking or from the negligence, dishonesty, misconduct or lack of skill of the Temporary Worker. For the avoidance of doubt, the Employment Business does not exclude liability for death or personal injury arising from its own negligence.

7.2 Temporary Workers are engaged by the Employment Business under contracts for services. They are deemed to be under the supervision, direction and control of the Client from the time they report to take up duties and for the duration of the Assignment. The Client agrees to be responsible for all acts, errors or omissions of the Temporary Worker, whether wilful, negligent or otherwise as though he were on the payroll of the Client. The Client will also comply in all respects with all statutes including for the avoidance of doubt, the Working Time Regulation, by-laws, codes of practice and legal requirements to which the Client is ordinarily subject in respect of the Client's own staff (excluding the matters specifically mentioned in Clause 5 above), including in particular the provision of adequate Employer's and Public Liability Insurance cover for the Temporary Worker during all Assignments. Where the Client requires or may require the services of a Temporary Worker for more than 48 hours in any week, the Client must notify the Employment Business of this requirement before the commencement of that week.

7.3 The Client shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Employment Business against any costs, claims or liabilities incurred by the Employment Business arising out of any Assignment and/or as a result of any breach of the Terms by the Client.

8. TERMINATION

8.1 Client undertakes to supervise the Temporary Worker sufficiently to ensure the Client's satisfaction with the Temporary Worker's standards of workmanship. If the Client reasonably considers that the services of the Temporary Worker are unsatisfactory, the Client may terminate the Assignment either by instructing the Temporary Worker to leave the Assignment immediately, or by directing the Employment Business to remove the Temporary Worker. The Employment Business may in such circumstances reduce or cancel the charges for the time worked by that Temporary Worker, provided that the Assignment terminates:-

- (a) within three hours of the Temporary Worker commencing the Assignment where the booking is for more than seven hours; or
- (b) within two hours for a booking of seven hours or less.

And also provided that notification of the unsuitability of the Temporary Worker is confirmed in writing to the Employment Business within 48 hours of the termination of the Assignment.

8.2 Any of the Client, the Employment Business or the Temporary Worker may terminate an assignment at any time without prior notice and without liability.

9. LAW

9.1 These Terms are governed by the law of England & Wales and are subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England & Wales.
